Lest We Forget

Pemberton Community News

ANZAC Day is so entrenched in the psyche of Australians and New Zealanders and it feels strange not to be celebrating and acknowledging it here overseas. Obviously from the tense used here you will notice that I am writing while away from home. Those of my era have grown up with our grandfathers and parents all serving in the Army, Navy and Air Force services, that it is just part of our everyday lives. I do not glorify war in any manner, it is just a matter of honouring those who have gone before me and respecting the efforts that they have made towards serving their country in whatever capacity they were asked.

Many of you have stories that you share with children and grandchildren, but I think what is one the most poignant things when it comes to ANZAC day, is just how many of our small towns are affected during periods of conflict. In my mothers' case, a dairy producing family of 6 from Middlesex, had 3 serving members of the family away during WW2. This left my grandmother, aunt and an uncle too young to serve, at home to run and look after the farm on their own. My grandfather was a Major in the Australian Army, my uncle serving in the RAAF, training at Bomber Command flying Lancaster Bombers and then eventually using these to drop supplies to the men suffering along the Thai Burma Railway. After WW2 my grandfather served for another 12 years in Japan, engineering the rebuild of critical infrastructure, with Nanna joining him there for many years. They were there when Pop was called to oversee the troops leaving for Korea for that next of wars. And it was here that he had the awful task of sending his youngest son to Korea via Japan.

My little mum at 93 is now literally one of a handful of WAAF's – members of the Women's Auxiliary Airforce - in the country. These women did many jobs for the RAAF where there were no men to fill the role. Mum served all over the country doing both the exciting and the menial, with bedding and rations pretty bleak indeed. And while this family was fortunate to have all return home, many families did not. Because of WW2, my parents met at Pearce Air Force Base after my father returned from serving as a radio operator in the South Pacific. He never talked about anything really, which happened in many families, except to tell us that while they suffered on their meagre rations, the American troop carriers would come in with the supply ship following, carrying ice cream and chewing gum!

From all of it though, one of the nicest things is this; Mum is invited and escorted to Pearce Air Force Base for every graduation ceremony, where she dines with the Officers, watches the fly overs with their aeronautical manoeuvres which still excite her, and in her words "We are looked after with such respect and treated as if we were glass". I think that says it all, we should continue to respect and honour our Service men and women for the preciousness of safety and security, Lest we Forget.

The PVC Rumour Mill

Unearthed 2019

As the last holiday makers rumble out of town and we settle back a little to catch breath, we should prepare ourselves for the next event on the calendar being the Unearthed Festival for 2019 which gets under way on the 3rd May running for a week to the 10th. This event, now in its fifth year is an initiative of the PVC who provide the underwriting of the event to showcase the daily lives of those who live here, that would be you and me, and all that goes on in the region encompassing the arts, food & wine trails, adventure experiences with all this wrapped up and delivered in the beautiful environment that is Pemberton. Especially don't miss the market day on Sunday the 5th as this will be a cracking day in the town centre with sausage making exhibitions and competitions plus great produce on offer.

Programmes are available from the Visitor Centre and bookings for the various events can be made on line. I look forward to seeing you at some of the Unearthed events, so please check the Website www.unearthepemberton.com.au and book early.

Targa South West

But that's not all as Targa South West follows hot on its heels running from the 17th – 19th May 2019.

Volunteers are always required for this event and if motor sport is in your blood, it is a fantastic way to get up close and personal with the machines, their crews and the organizers of this fantastically well run event. If you can assist by being an official, please go onto the website and register at <https://www.targasouthwest.com.au/officials/officials-registration/>

Executive Officer

I am pleased to announce a new arrival at the Visitor Centre in Shelley Draper who has joined us as our Executive Officer to co-ordinate and run all things tourism from the VC and also in providing assistance to Aaron, the Park Host at the Caravan Park, when he takes the odd break from his endless duties. Shelley brings a wealth of experience and energy to the position and we wish her well in her new and varied roles. The PVC Board and I would also like to express our heartfelt thanks to Deb Mack who has slaved away at the VC during some difficult periods and wish her well in her continuing management of the CRC and the development of its programs for the Pemberton Community.

Pemberton Caravan Park

The only way to describe the park is that it is simply going 'gang busters' at the moment with a continuing upgrade programme under way whilst maintaining and improving the services we have put in place with your help. The Easter Festival, School Holidays and Anzac Day celebrations have proved a real test of the park and the operating management plan we have put in place. At times Aaron was seeing 80 + vans arrive in a day plus some blow ins and his ability to provide a smiling face with an unruffled demeanour to sometimes stressed drivers and families is a fantastic bonus for the town compared to past experiences. The park was full with the overflow being in constant use during this period and the new spaces in the Peppermint Grove part of the park are hugely appreciated by our guests. The park and the new infrastructure is standing up well and the staff in Aaron, Barbara, Rob, Rudi and now Shelley all need a pat on the back for their efforts. The park is becoming a real draw for those traveling holiday makers and the music put up courtesy of Nathan Ramage better known as DJ Damage was a huge hit with the guests staying at the park.

That's it from me...

Targa South West is an exciting tarmac rallying event in the Southern Forests region in the South West of Western Australia. It's an event that's designed to be a fun weekend away for the crews and their teams, whilst providing the people in and around Pemberton, Manjimup and Northcliffe with a colourful and engaging motor sport event right on their doorstep.

With approximately 50 tarmac rally cars competing on closed roads in the region, including sections of the Manjimup, Pemberton and Northcliffe townships, it is a colourful, free to view, motorsport event.

On Friday 17th May, a charity hill-climb will take place in Pemberton to raise money for a local worthwhile cause. This is an exclusive opportunity for a very limited number of people to get 'suited, booted and helmeted' and go for a 'Ride in a Rally Car' on a real rally stage in exchange for a moderate donation which will be used to help provide facilities to be utilised by local community organisations and events.

Saturday 18th May the cars head down to Northcliffe and back for the first time and then in the afternoon, the rally cars will compete around the streets of Manjimup with the corner of Rose & Lock Streets being the perfect location to spectate and watch all of the rally action.

Sunday 19th May in the morning will see the rally cars and other car displays in the main street of Pemberton, then the competition will start through the streets of the town. And if you have a special car of interest of your own, then register for the Pemberton Display and Parade Lap around the rally course. Go to www.targasouthwest.com.au for details.

Spectating is FREE for the whole event so bring the family out to enjoy a weekend of motorsport.

FRIDAY 17th May 2019

Monthly Prayer

Our Dear Heavenly Father,

Once again we find ourselves praying for all of those who have tragically lost the ones they love at the hands of those who seemingly have no respect for the preciousness of the human life You gave and want to murder and maim out of hatred. Father, in all of our inability to understand what motivates people to perpetrate such horrible things, we just ask You to be the source of comfort to those who weep and mourn and ask the question “Why?” We pray that they might know the closeness of Your presence in their time of grief.

We too ask the same question as we see all of these atrocities and realise the true meaning of Your Word, the Bible, that the says “The human heart is the most deceitful of all things, and desperately wicked. Who really knows how bad it is?” It shows us how far, as a human race, we have fallen from the things that You hold dear, especially the sanctity and value of human life.

Help us to see that, perhaps in lesser ways, we too have evil in our hearts, and we know that only You can save us from the sin and evil that lurks within. We come in faith to You, acknowledging that we have done, said and thought many wrong things and that we need Your forgiveness. Forgive us and cleanse us from these things and make us right with You to live in ways that please You. We ask in Jesus’ Precious Name, Amen.

So many things are starting to take place at the CRC mainly due to Kelly and Pei-Chen constantly finding things for me to do or organise.

April saw the first of many Family Tree/Genealogy Workshops we will be conducting in Pemberton. Dr. Les Westerlund was intriguing as he brought to life the family trees of those who attended. It was fun to watch him deliberately making errors so that we could see just how important it is to check and re check information that is out there in the Genealogy world. One of the highlights of the day for me, was to watch along with everyone else as the name of Bill Bryant's grandmother was revealed. Bill had never known her name previous to this, and for a Family Tree tragic I found this particularly moving. I am sure Bill did too. All this was done via information readily available on Ancestry. As a designated Family History Library with Ancestry Library Edition, now is the best time to come into the CRC and see who we can find in your tree that you have always wondered about or who else belongs in the branch of your tree. We will be inviting Les back to join us and look forward to introducing a regular Saturday session for already and soon to be tragics. Our next session will be in June with a Family History Librarian from Bunbury, who will take us through many other programs and databases available.

THE COFFEE MILL REVIEW

I started making coffee in the 90s, so I decided I really needed to bring my skills up to date. The group on the course was small enough to get plenty of hands on experience and friendly, expert advice. I was glad to leave confident with my new skills, a better understanding of the equipment and it was basically just a fun way to spend a Tuesday afternoon.

Anzac Day

We were treated to glorious weather for this year’s Anzac day activities. The dawn service, co-ordinated by the RSL, was attended by over 300 people who witnessed a very moving service. The dawn itself was glorious and was followed by light refreshments catered by the CWA and of course rum which is a tradition of Anzac Day. Thank you to everyone who donated a bottle. Similarly it was wonderful to see a second large group attend the 11am service which was run by the combined efforts of the Pemberton District High School, St Joseph’s and the Pemberton RSL. This years’ theme celebrated women in the forces and was highlighted by our very own Kerrie Martyn taking the salute of the marchers. In addition to the moving speeches and music of the service, the town was treated to a fly over by the RAAF. A lunch was hosted by the RSL / CWA providing a great opportunity for the community to commemorate the town’s contribution to maintaining peace both within our region and abroad. Two-up was included in the afternoon’s activities, another standing tradition of Anzac Day. Introducing ‘two-up money’ meant fun was had by all, without losing too much real money.

Those involved in the co-ordination of the entire day’s activities did a terrific job with positive feedback being received from many areas. The only issue highlighted on the day was the road noise during each of the services. This has been acknowledged and the shire will initiate arrangements to have the road closed for future services.

The RSL would like to extend their gratitude specifically to Rose and her CWA helpers, our chief cook, Rob Allen, Lee and students from Pemberton District High, and Brett and students from St Joseph’s Primary. A special thanks to our Bugler, Phillip Stan-Bishop, who comes over every ANZAC Day from Albany. There are many more helpers who haven’t been named here, including all the RSL members, a big thank you to all of you. A more general thank you is extended to the Pemberton community and all the visitors who supported the day’s memorial services and other activities to build that sense of comradeship which Anzac Day instils in all touched by war.

2019 MARKS THE LONG AWAITED RETURN OF

Women's Hockey To Pemberton & Northcliffe as the Mixjuz Team.

The team will participate in the Warren Women's Hockey Association competition. Games are played on Saturdays at 12:45 at Collier Street Complex, Manjimup. Season runs from May 4 to Sept 7.

The competition is full field hockey with teams made up of girls aged 12+ and women learning to play, have returned to the game following an absence, or just preferring less competitive hockey than the A grade.

Training will be run on the oval at Pemberton District High School. Pre-season training is every Monday and Friday night, 5.00-6.00pm. Once we have our team formed we can pick training night(s) that suits everyone best. Training is not compulsory, but great for new players, and team building.

Shade Stories

SunSmart is seeking shade stories

If you've ever been to your local playground or swimming pool and appreciated the shade, or lack thereof, Cancer Council WA's SunSmart team wants to hear about it.

The SunSmart team is seeking community feedback on the availability of shade at public outdoor places and open spaces in Western Australia.

The importance of sun protection

Overexposure to ultraviolet (UV) radiation from the sun is the major cause of melanoma and non-melanoma skin cancer. This means that the majority of skin cancers in WA are preventable.

The SunSmart message encourages West Australian's to protect themselves when outdoors with sun protective clothing, hats, sunscreen, shade and sunglasses. Being SunSmart is particularly important throughout childhood and adolescence; a time when sun exposure plays a critical role in determining future skin cancer risk.

Sun protection is recommended when the UV Index is 3 and above. Download the free SunSmart App to keep track of the live UV Index in your area.

Seeking shade

Seeking shade is an effective strategy and, when used in conjunction with other measures, enables maximum sun protection to be achieved. Good quality shade can be created by a built structure (e.g. shade sails) or the natural environment (e.g. trees).

For more information, or to share your shade story visit myuv.com.au/shadestories.

Shade stories will assist Cancer Council WA's advocacy efforts to improve the availability and quality of shade in the community.

Manjimup—missing mail

The saga of the missing mail in Manjimup continues. My office is working closely with the Postal Industry Ombudsman and Australia Post National Resolutions team to determine the reason mail is going missing. Initially there was speculation mail was being stolen after delivery, however many items are not being delivered to locked boxes—so this theory does not fit all circumstances. It appears the issue is much more complex than originally thought—so the investigation continues.

In regard to vehicle licencing, you can check when your vehicle registration expires by simply entering the plate number at <https://online.transport.wa.gov.au/webExternal/registration/> I am sure the CRC can assist if you need help with this.

Regional Hospitals

In meeting constituents around the region, fears about the long term plans for our smaller regional hospitals have been raised. I hear stories about the tired condition of some of our older hospitals and suggestions they are understaffed.

I have written to the Minister for Health to seek assurance that the McGowan Government will support these vital health services and adequately fund hospitals in the region.

Support for people with disabilities

The transition to the National Disability Insurance Scheme is proving difficult for some families and a number of issues are emerging, especially in regional areas. Parents tell me the option to self-manage the funds is actually not an option for many people, as the paperwork is overwhelming and the level of reporting too onerous. Key areas I am seeking support is local access to an independent support person to help families broker personalised, tailored solutions within the parameters of the NDIS funding package; and access to funding for respite.

Consultation re Voluntary Assisted Dying

Consultation regarding the draft Voluntary Assisted Dying legislation is currently underway with the discussion paper available at <https://ww2.health.wa.gov.au/voluntaryassisteddying>

The Nationals are liaising with the Minister for Health to utilise the CRC Network so regional people can have their say.

PAG NEWS FOR APRIL 2019 WITH EASTER, ANZAC DAY & SCHOOL HOLIDAYS

Our main effort was to have the best art exhibition yet for all our holiday visitors and to delight our locals who always come to our exhibition openings with enthusiasm. When I delivered my own piece of art I found the room absolutely full of artists placing their works against the walls everywhere. It was almost chaotic but within a day the whole exhibition was in perfect order with each of the pictures placed next to the best one to suit it, each one considered carefully with the subject, the style and the colours before being put up on the wall to the exact height. To my personal delight the exhibition also had for the first time quite a number of very individual but very good and small sculptural pieces. We had seventy artists from all around the south west to join in this exhibition and it is a really worth seeing!

Rick Wilson was kind enough to find time to open the exhibition despite the oncoming election in May. Lyn DiCiero was also a special guest interested in both the Artscape and the Exhibition as part of the 2019 Unearth, Discover, Embrace Festival.

The following were the very generous donors and the artists who were chosen by Carl and Jan Altmann, a couple of very competent judges.

THE PEMBERTON UNEARTHED FESTIVAL FOR 2019 IS NOW ON :-

So we have extended our Art Exhibition opening from April 13th - May 11th (closed on Tuesdays and Wednesdays) for which we have to thank a considerable number of PAG Members and Friends who mind the exhibition and are available for sales. However that is not all, the Pemberley Sculpture in the Vines will be opening on May 2nd until May 11th.

This year a De Campo truck has been persuaded to collect sculpture from Perth and Fremantle and bring it to Pemberley so that exhibition is becoming larger and recommended to everyone.

PAG also recommends seeing the film of Coppelia, a Terry Charlesworth Ballet with our Ron Ashton in the senior role. May 9th at the Mill Hall for $5. On May 7th Lakeside Garden is open for a beautiful evening walk round the garden followed by drinks and snacks, live music and the launch of 'Fences of Australia' with the author Jack Bradshaw.

We recommend picking up a programme to find details about all the other festival activities.

FROM THE BEGINNING UNTIL NOW....

PAG members are delighted by the way the organization is developing and growing. Many of us have been part of it from the very beginning and we would be really pleased to have some more art enthusiasts who would like to join us for the joy of it. We share our successes, mop up the odd disaster and would welcome anyone whether they are interested in drawing, painting, 3D work or art history!

MEDIA RELEASE

FENCES OF AUSTRALIA

by JACK BRADSHAW

ABOUT THE BOOK
 From stone to post and rail, from the utilitarian to the sculptural, a well-built fence is a thing of beauty and a monument to workmanship. These practical but emblematic structures are part of the story of Australia. Starting with 7000 year old Aboriginal fish traps and ending with a look into the future in a chapter on virtual fencing, Jack Bradshaw traces the history of Australia's fences in words and pictures.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR
 Jack Bradshaw is a retired forester from the south-west of Western Australia. He worked for the Department of Conservation and Land Management and its predecessor, the Forests Department of Western Australia, before becoming a consultant in native forest management and silviculture. Jack has travelled extensively in Australia with his wife, Sue, over a number of years, with a particular interest in photographing rural fencing and exploring its history.

KEY POINTS

- Jack Bradshaw is the author of Stinkers and Whims: A pictorial history of stinky-gerring (Word Publishing, 2012).
- Perfectly suited for tourists wanting a gift book featuring Australian landscapes, this book will fit beside the till for last-minute Christmas purchases.
- Bradshaw brings his decades-long experience as a forester in regional Australia to this pictorial history of Australian fences.
- Fences of Australia has 90 full-colour photographs from around the country.

St Joseph's School News

The St Joseph's community has been exceedingly productive during March and April. Just an update to our Project Compassion 'Water Carrying Challenge': The St Joseph's community has managed to raise $1170 to date! This achievement reflects the spirit and willingness of St Joseph's community to assist those less fortunate.

Big Bash Cricket

It was a warm and still night. The pitch had been mowed, marked out and rules established. Players were ready. Time to start the inaugural P&F Sundowner St Joseph's Big Bash Parents vs Students cricket match! The parents started strongly but were worn down by a persistent and enthusiastic student team. Well done to the students for their victory.

Busy Bee

St Joseph's school has a new addition to the junior play area, a timber train (or whatever the student's imagination wants it to be). This addition of play equipment would not have been possible without the support of our great school community. Thanks to all the parents who gave up their Sunday morning.

Special Guests

Sister Dora Maguire and Sister Frances Maguire visited the school recently. Sister Dora and Sister Francis are both Josephite sisters. Sister Dora was an inaugural teacher at St Joseph's in 1953 and Sister Francis was once Principal of Kearnan College. The children enjoyed listening to stories about the early years of the school. The sisters recalled with fond memories the support they received from the community of Pemberton.

APRIL AT PDHS

Y7/Y8 RESPECT & RESILIENCE

PEMBERTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

April flew by at PDHS, with students eagerly engaging in a wide range of extra-curricular and enrichment activities.

EASTER BONNET PARADE

Our Year 7/8 students completed the Respect and Resilience camp, where they developed their skills in organisation, communication and problem-solving while exploring Albany and participating in canoeing, swimming and snorkelling.

PDHS welcomed back the Hawaiian Ride for Youth team which saw around 60 riders and support crew enjoy lunch with our students. Primary students played a relay game with the riders, followed by a presentation to our Year 9/10 students about mental health support services. We were delighted to present Youth Focus with a cheque for $175 raised by our school.

SCITECH 'BEYOND THE BEAKER'

Our students from Years 6 to 10 attended SciTech's 'Beyond the Beaker' workshop which explored how the future world of work is changing, and how students can harness their STEM skills and knowledge for maximum enjoyment, well-being and career opportunities. The students and teachers alike thoroughly enjoyed this hands-on presentation.

The Athletics Carnival was an absolutely fantastic day. We loved having students from Saint Joseph's, Northcliffe and Walpole join our students from Pre-Primary to Year 10, competing in a range of individual and team events in such a positive manner. A very big thank to all of the parents and community members who came to cheer along the students, as well as our wonderful P&C who ran the canteen and provided lunches. Happy Easter!

Pemberton Mill Hall

Approximately 200 people attended a concert held at the Pemberton Mill Hall recently. This was a night of entertainment performed by the Vanuatuan and Tongan people currently working at the Berry Sweet Strawberry Farm. These performances gave the audience a brief insight into the musical culture of some of the islands of Vanuatu and Tonga. It was a unique opportunity for the Pemberton community!

The Tongans sang their National Anthem and showcased various dances and singing items. The Vanuatuan sang and danced to their unique musical rhythms which the audience thoroughly enjoyed. The colours and style of their costumes enhanced all the performances throughout the evening.

Marilyn Gibson won the chair prize which is a complimentary garden service carried out by the workers.

The Tongans and Vanuatuan thanked Farm Manager Dougy, the owners of Berry Sweet and the Pemberton community for embracing them during their time here. Dougy responded saying it was a win win situation for Berry Sweet, the workers and the Pemberton community.

Thankyou to the volunteers who helped serve food, provided supper, helped clean up etc. It was truly a community effort that brought everyone together to enjoy a memorable night of cultural entertainment. We look forward to another great concert next year!

an exhibition of digital collage and mixings by Janet Leigh

"Its been so long since I had a studio and been able to sit and work at my art.

After a nearly 5 year break spent building our new house and managing our farm, I saw a documentary on British artist David Hockney and his 2012 exhibition "A Bigger Picture". There were some huge colourful works and iterations produced using the app "Brushes" on his iPad. This was all I needed to start again.

I'm thrilled and really excited to present this new series of works. I wondered whether I still had it in me... in fact I'm bursting, the energy and thrill is there. ...and I think this is obvious in the colour and sharp focus these works have."

Profession:

F & B Business Owner

By Gwen Wenli, Contributor & Yoga Teacher

Pauline and her husband Mitch arrived in 2012 when Mitch took on his first teaching post in Manjimup. It did not take long for them to realize that they loved the feel of Pemberton and decided to make the big transition. Pauline wasted no time in getting involved in community groups like the arts and St John Ambulance. No doubt the Tree House Tapas & Wine Bar, which Pauline and Mitch started two years ago is a safe & 'palettable' place to be!

Ups & Downs

The best part about the wine bar is meeting and talking to people. I enjoy chatting with our customers and have no problem listening. I get fulfillment from being able to provide a hub for the community. The biggest drawback for me personally is the long hours to make sure everything goes smoothly.

Philosophy For Life

Eat, drink and be happy, and why not the Pinot!

How does your life story fit with your work?

Pemberton is just the perfect place where I can see myself playing an active role in the community. Apart from being able to find the time to volunteer in the community, I was able to contribute to the establishment of the Tree House Tapas Wine Bar, a community gathering spot, and that sense of community can be very rewarding. In the near future, I hope to install a roof top terrace at the wine bar, start a hobby farm, breed highland cattle and travel to Spain or anywhere!

HISTORY CORNER

Young patrons spill out from a matinee screening of a family film at the Adyar hall in Pemberton – just after the hall was built by Allan Jones in 1929. Allan is standing at the top of the stairs at the bio-box door. A history is being compiled. See main column (Picture Shows).

Beginning in 1923 at the State Mill No. 1 near Manjimup, with a hand-cranked projector showing silent movies, and finally closing at the Busselton Drive -In on Anzac Day 2015, the Allan Jones Circuit Pictures is believed to be the longest continuously running family owned cinema operation in the world.

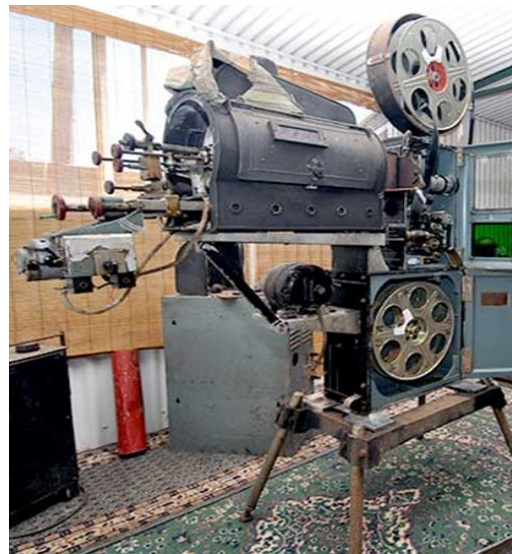

The Pemberton Picture Theatre (also known as the Adyar Hall) was constructed in 1929 by Allan Jones; one of Western Australia’s earliest travelling picture show men. It is the only purpose-built timber picture theatre left in Western Australia and demonstrates an important phase in the history of cinema entertainment in the State. The building operated as a picture theatre until the early 1970’s.

The story of the exciting years of Allan Jones and his dedicated teams of travelling picture showmen is now being prepared as a book by author, Daryl Binning. It is intended to raise funds from the sale of the book to support community museums in those towns in the South West who relied on the regular visits by his projectionists for their entertainment.

Daryl will be in Pemberton on Tuesday 8 May to promote the publication and the public is invited to meet with him at the Holy Smoke Café in Dickinson Street (the Finecraft Woodcraft Gallery) to view the book which includes many illustrations, and to discuss the history over a cup of coffee. An informative and interesting video will also be shown.

Many hours of work have gone into restoring the derelict building using original photos and plans dating back to 1929. The original owners have tried to balance historical authenticity with the facilities expected of a unique accommodation complex. Many of the features of the picture theatre have been retained or have been recreated using new materials. Still remaining are the original structure of jarrah timber, the timber floorboards, much of the jarrah dado, the original stage and the pressed tin ceiling roses.

Shire President's Message

Easter/ANZAC

I trust you had a wonderful Easter break and hope that you managed to attend an ANZAC service near you to pay your respects to fallen soldiers who sacrificed so much for our way of life. Currently the Australian Roll of Honour lists 102,872 official deaths as a result of service with Australian units from 1860 to the present day. That is a very significant sacrifice that will be harder and harder to comprehend as the generations pass and the first hand stories of struggle and hardship from the World Wars are lost.

$200,000 Grant

Shire Sustainability Officer Ann Bentley has been successful in obtaining $200,000 in federal funding for biosecurity management of pests and weeds. The Shire was eligible for this funding as a drought affected (1-in-20 year rainfall deficiency) local council where agriculture is a primary driver for the economy. The project will target vertebrate pests and invasive environmental weeds that are having a high impact on drought affected areas within the Shire.

2019 Keep Australia Beautiful WA Tidy Towns Entry

The Shire, as a whole, is an entrant in the 2019 Keep Australia Beautiful WA Tidy Towns Sustainable Communities Awards Litter Prevention and Waste Management category, which recognises innovation and achievements in litter prevention, reducing and managing waste.

Trail Bike Hub

In 2017 the Shire of Manjimup undertook a feasibility study to develop and position Manjimup as a Trail Bike Hub. The study found that there is a significant market for trail bike trails and that Manjimup is well positioned to become a Hub for trail bike riding. In January 2019, the Manjimup Trail Bike Hub Inc. was established to support the Manjimup Trail Bike Hub to become the region's main destination for trail bike riding.

Anybody interested in the project is encouraged to register their interest so that they can be kept up to date with the Hub's development and progress, particularly for when riders and businesses will be encouraged to get involved with the Hub themselves. People are also being encouraged to register their interest in the MTBH through an online questionnaire and to take part in a logo design competition.
